

Research for children's books!!

Analysis of a children's book

There is a small amount of text using basic words because the target audience is young children.

It contains a question making it interactive and helping children learn the names of animals. They can look at the images and answer the question, developing knowledge of farm animals.

The pictures are very basic and easy to interpret, helping children define the different animals.

Don't mix bad words with your bad mood.
You will have many opportunities to change your mood.
But you will never get the opportunity to replace the words you said.

When you want to say how you feel just pick one of these mood circles to show your career.

Who will care for me?

Pandora is a little cute panda that gets separated from her mummy and family.

She goes on a journey to try and find her mummy but who could it be? Pandora tries to find her mummy but comes across different animals that do not look like her.

None of the animals seem to be right for Pandora. Will she ever find a mummy?
