Pandora did not want to be alone anymore so she went to find look for her mummy.

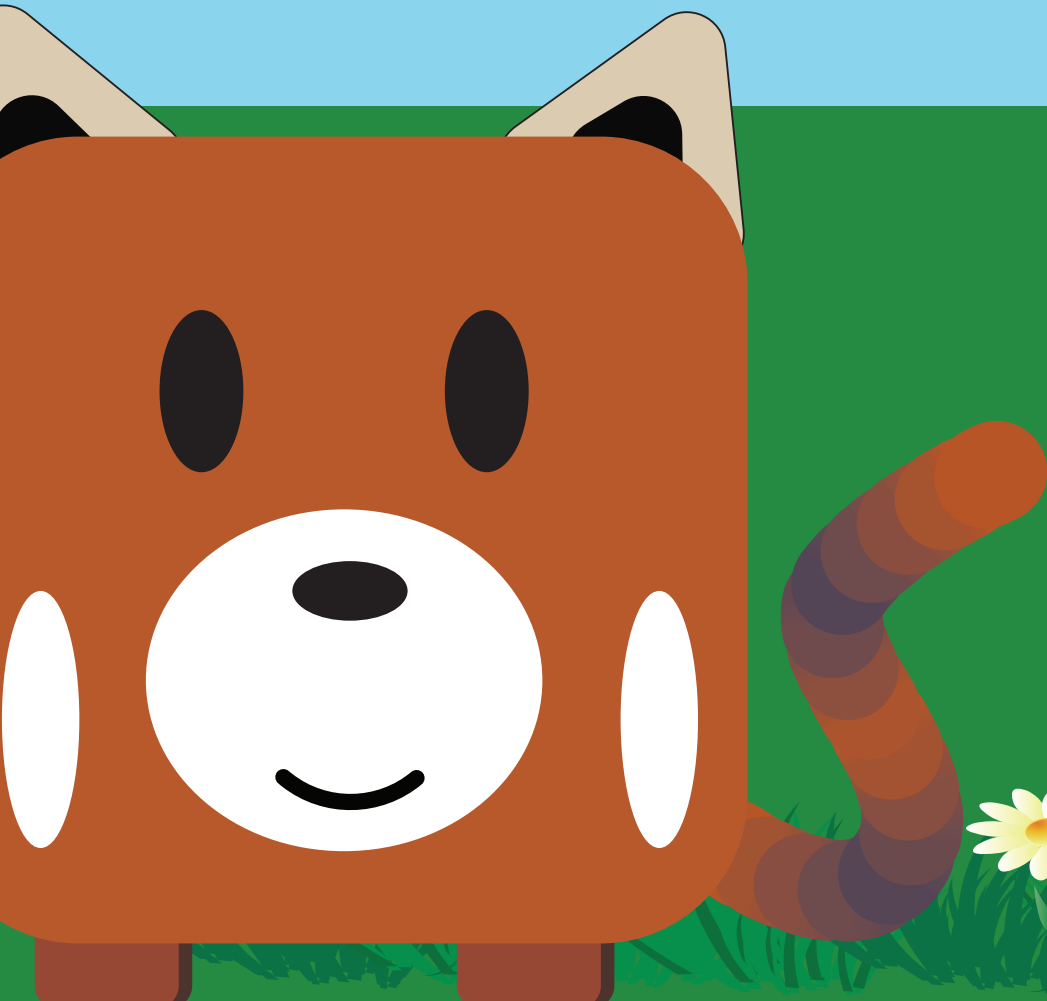

First Pandora met Mrs Polar Bear. “Oh Mrs Polar Bear”, she cried, “You have white fur just like me, are you my mummy?”

“I’m sorry”, sighed Mrs Polar Bear “I do not have beautiful black ears like you”.

Pandora next meets Mrs Red Panda, “Oh Mrs Red Panda”, she cried. “You look like me, are you my mummy?”

“I’m sorry”, sighed Mrs Red Panda “I have red fur and you have white fur”.

No matter where Pandora searched, she still didn't find her mummy who looked just like her.

Pandora was alone again and started to cry, but Mrs Rabbit hopped over and asked, "Are you ok their little panda?"

"I cannot find my mummy," replied Pandora.

When they sat down to talk, Mrs Rabbit turned to Pandora and said “Pandora maybe I could be your mummy?”

“You” Pandora cried.

“But you don’t look like me, with my big beautiful eyes and white fur” said Pandora.

“My goodness” said Mrs Rabbit, “I do not have all those things you have, but I have a fluffy tail and big floppy ears, but these floppy ears are what makes me different to you”.

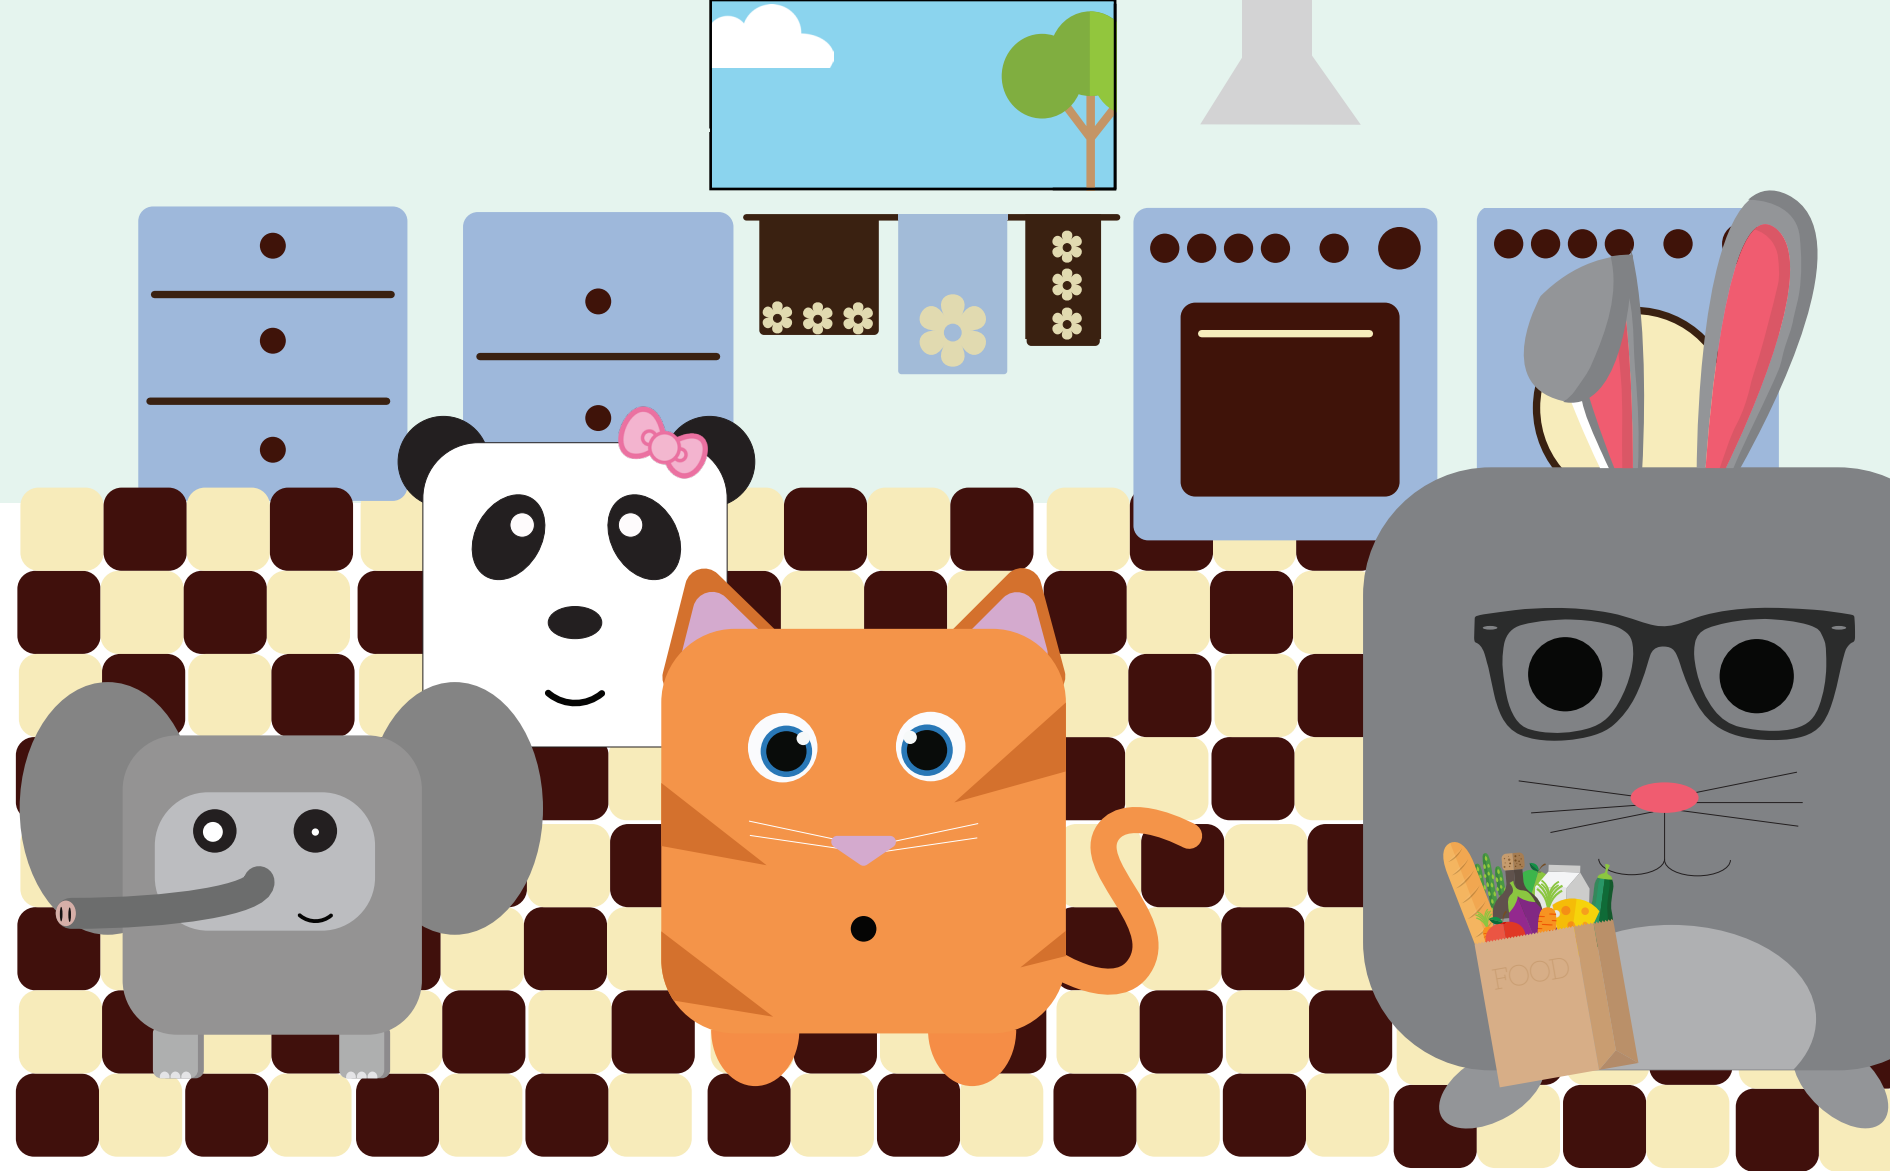

“Maybe my children can change your mind, come on meet my family”.

When they arrived at Mrs Rabbit's house, children rushed out to meet Pandora.

"Pandora meet Kat and Ellie, I am their mummy too".

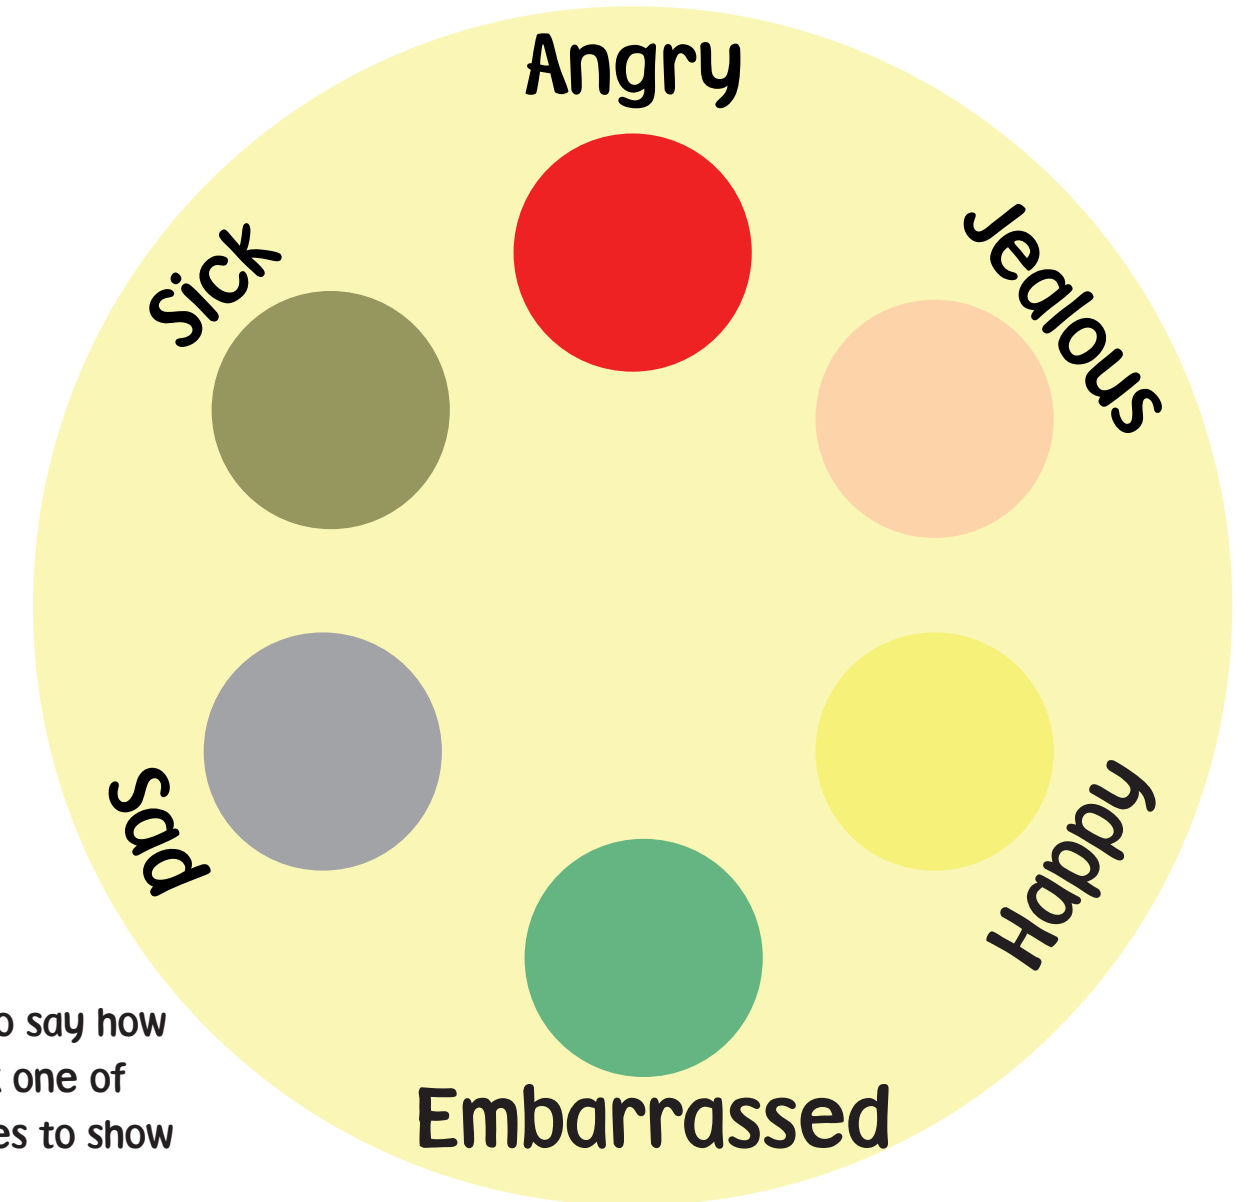

Mrs Rabbit cooked dinner whilst the Pandora played with her new family.

And now Pandora was very happy that her new mummy loved Pandora the same as she loved Ellie and Kat.
